INTRODUCTION.

We here place before the reader the fifteenth volume of the Vital Record of Rhode Island, fully believing that it will prove as interesting as any of the previous volumes of the series. In this volume we have finished the Marriages of the Gazette and have given the Deaths of the Chronicle. The same plan we have followed in the past will be continued in the future, with such improvement as age and experience shall determine.

The General Assembly have again in their judgment and wisdom extended to us in this volume their usual courtesy. The officers in charge of the newspapers have been, as usual, obliging, giving us all needed assistance. We hereby extend our thanks for these favors and courtesies and also extend them to those who have said a good word for the work.

Please bear in mind that the dates given herein, if preceded by word Gazette or Chronicle, means that the Marriage or Death appeared in that number of the newspaper, otherwise the real date of the event is given.

We close by trusting that the reader will find pleasure as well as instruction in his perusal of this volume and will feel compensated for his time spent in our company.

The Providence Gazette

MARRIAGES
THE PROVIDENCE GAZETTE.

The Providence Gazette was the first newspaper printed in Providence. The first number was issued October 20, 1762, the last October 8, 1825.

Its full title when first published was The Providence Gazette and Country Journal containing the freshest advices, both Foreign and Domestic. January 5, 1782, this last caption was dropped. January 10, 1795, and Country Journal followed, but was restored Jan. 12, 1811. March 1, 1817, it was dropped again and there was substituted and Moral, Political and Commercial Advertiser. When it became a semi-weekly in January, 1820, it was known as The Providence Gazette only until it was merged with the American Oct. 11, 1825, and then known as The Rhode Island American and Providence Gazette. This paper lasted until 1832.

It was a weekly until 1820, and thereafter until October 8, 1825, a semi-weekly. While a weekly its publication day was Saturday, except from October 4, 1780, to January 24, 1781, when it was Wednesday. From Saturday, May 11, 1765, until August 9, 1766, its publication was suspended. While a semi-weekly the publication days, in 1820, were Monday and Thursday; from 1821 to October 8, 1825, Wednesday and Saturday.

Of these numbers we have been so fortunate as to have seen all but Nos. 139, 149 and 502.

At the October meeting of the Rhode Island Historical Society in 1897 Hon. Amos Perry read a paper on this subject, which was printed in the Quarterly.

In this paper he says that the first editor and proprietor was William Goddard; that from August 9, 1766, Sarah Goddard & Co. were the publishers; from Sept. 19, 1767, Sarah Goddard and John Carter. After November 12, 1768, John Carter was sole proprietor until November 9, 1797, when William Wilkinson was a partner with Carter and so continued until May 11, 1799, when Carter was again sole proprietor. February 19, 1814, Hugh H. Brown and William H. Wilson were proprietors. After June 22, 1816, Brown was sole proprietor, until January 3, 1820, when he took Walter R. Danforth as a partner. When the paper was merged with the American in October, 1825, Brown was again sole proprietor and A. G. Greene, editor.

When Mr. Brown made this change in his business he sold only the newspaper portion and still continued in the business as a job printer.

When the paper was first printed it was advertised as "Printed opposite the Court House." While it lived it had four different locations on the east side but was removed from one of these places to another several times in its career.

In this newspaper is a large amount of rich historical matter. It is the only newspaper in the State of whose issues during the War of the Revolution we have today a complete file. Its position was strongly in favor of the cause of the Colony. The subject matter in its columns was well handled and its literary style was of a high order.

Hon. Zachariah Allen had the largest and best collection of the files of this paper in the State. He presented this to the Rhode Island Historical Society who have added considerable to it. They now lack approximately 75 numbers. The Providence Journal has the next best collection. The John Carter Brown Library and S. S. Rider have collections of the earlier numbers. The American Antiquarian Society of Worcester, Mass., have a few only. From these latter files we have been able to gain access to all but three numbers as above stated. Our thanks are hereby extended to the custodians of these files for the favor of perusal.

In 1892 Mr. Albert Holbrook made a selection from the Deaths and Marriages herein recorded of such family names and events as he was personally interested in. These he copied into a book which is now in the possession of the Rhode Island Historical Society.

In our collection following we have taken every death and marriage recorded where the names were given. To do this, it is needless to remark, has cost us a large amount of time and patience.

The marriages from A to C were published in our preceding volume XIV of the Vital Records.

The present installment therefore commences with the letter D.

United States Chronicle.

DEATHS.
The United States Chronicle

Political, Commercial and Historical.

This was the full title of the second paper established by Bennett Wheeler in Providence. The price was nine shillings per year. It was published on the “west side of the river next door to Mr. Jacob Whitman.” The first number was issued Thursday, Jan. 1, 1784. It was the same size as the “American Journal” (4 pages, 12 columns).

Feb. 21, 1793, he left off “Political, Commercial and Historical” from his title and set “The United States Chronicle” in a new letter and added in outline the arms of the State and the United States, retaining four columns instead of three, making the columns so much narrower. Jan. 7, 1796, he returned to the three columns as before, but May 19 of the same year went back to his four columns again.

Oct. 3, 1784, and forward the publication day was Wednesday; Jan. 6, 1785, and forward Thursday. Jan. 5, 1786, he first showed in outline the arms of the United States and the State on his title.

When Thursday was Thanksgiving Friday was publication day except in two instances when it was Wednesday.

During its career it had several locations. As before stated he commenced “Next door to Jacob Whitman’s.” July 1, 1784, it was published at Fenner’s Corners opposite the Market; July 13, 1786, in Westminster street opposite Theodore Foster’s, Esq.; June 14, 1792, in Market House Chambers; Sept. 29, 1796, in Westminster street, a few rods westward of the Great Bridge; Sept. 19, 1799, Westminster street, near the Great Bridge; Aug. 1, 1800, No. 1 Westminster street; March 4, 1801, No. 4 same street; May 7, 1801, four doors westward of the Exchange Bank, Westminster street.

March 29, 1804, he removes his personal advertisement at head of first column first page to the bottom of the last column on the last page.
Nov. 3, 1803, Mr. Wheeler retires from the business and offers at this time a house to let on High street opposite the Meeting House.

Jan. 5, 1804, John Wheeler, his eldest son, is proprietor and so remained until its last number, May 17, 1804.

Of the files of this newspaper that of the Historical Society is now in seven bound volumes. The Providence Journal had a set in three volumes presented them by the late Charles J. Wheeler, broken, dating from Jan. 1, 1789, to Dec. 25, 1800. This later file is now in custody of the Historical Society. Brown University Library has broken numbers. From these we have been able to see the complete set.

Mr. Wheeler took a pride in book work and several of his jobs in this line are now in existence which showed very good work and taste in the printing line.
